THE Numb. 439.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, October 4, 1753.

GENOA, June 11.

ON the 5th Inſtant an Expreſs arriv'd here from St. Remo, with Advice, that the Inhabitants of that Town and Diſtrict had rebelled againſt the Republic, refuſing to pay the Taxes impoſed on them, as being contrary to the Convention made, when they put themſelves under this Republic; they even went ſo far as to ſeize the Governor and his Guard, and keep them ſtrictly confin'd; and immediately diſpatched two Deputies to Milan, to crave Aſſiſtance, and to put themſelves under the Protection of the Empreſs Queen. Since the Receipt of this Advice many Councils have been held, and it was reſolv'd on the 8th Inſtant, at Night, to ſend 4 Galleys, 2 Galliots, 2 Pantoons, with 2 Mortars, and 6 Pieces of Cannon each; and to embark all the regular Troops in the City, to the Number of about 2000 Men, under the Command of M. Auguſtine Pinello, with Directions, that if the Inhabitants did not ſubmit immediately at Diſcretion, and comply with every Thing that the Republic demands, to ſhew them no Mercy, and lay the Town in Aſhes. Yeſterday 2000 Bombſhells were embark'd; and Handicrafts of all Profeſſions are employed in getting ready the Armament, fitting the Barks for the Reception of the Troops, and ſhipping of Arms, Warlike Stores, Proviſions, &c. Orders have alſo been given to the Country Militia and Citizens to prepare themſelves to mount Guard daily, during the Abſence of the regular Troops, as none of the latter will be left in the Town, but only one Battalion of Germans to Guard the Palace. The Preparations are continu'd this Day with the greateſt Expedition poſſible; and it is expected, that in two or three Days they will be ready to ſail for St. Remo, to reduce thoſe People to Obedience.

Aranjuez, May 12. There has fallen ſo little Rain in this Country for near a Twelvemonth paſt, that we have no Proſpect of any Harveſt this Year. A Calamity which is the more alarming, as it is almoſt general throughout the Kingdom of Spain, ſo that it will be impoſſible for one Province to aſſiſt another. The Scarcity of Bread was laſt Week near occaſioning a Diſturbance amongſt the People at Madrid; but by the Vigilance of the Magiſtrates, the Markets were ſoon ſupplied, tho' at a much higher Price than uſual.

Paris, May 28. Many Imperfect Copies of Remonſtrances made by the Parliament of Paris having been made public, we ſhall give our Readers one which is looked upon as authentic, and worthy of being tranſmitted to Poſterity.

"Sire, The moſt eſſential Intereſt of a Sovereign is to know Truth. Your Parliament is bound, by the Duty of their Station, to lay the ſame at your Majeſty's Feet: But never was that Duty more cloſely united with the inviolable Fidelity they have ſworn to maintain, than at the preſent Juncture, when the Rights of their moſt valuable Religion, and the Preſervation of the State, are at Stake. Both are equally threatened by that daring Schiſm which has raiſed our Zeal, which Schiſm, having been too long not taken Notice of, has taken ſuch deep Root, and makes daily ſuch rapid Progreſs, that very ſhortly there will be no Methods found to put a Stop thereto.

"Already, Sire, the Courſe of Juſtice is interrupted, the moſt neceſſary Forms violated, the People harraſſed, the Criminal emboldened, the Judges deſpiſed, intimidated, oppoſed, and even rendered incapable of acting. Already the violent Shocks occaſioned by this Schiſm diſcovers an aſſuming of Power in the Heart of your Dominions, an arbitrary Rule which knows no Laws nor Sovereign, nor Magiſtracy, under the Pretence of Religion; the Sovereign Authority made Uſe of, or rejected, as an Inſtrument to ſerve their own Purpoſes; the fundamental Laws of the Kingdom are treated as a troubleſome Yoke; the lawful Liberty of the Citizen as imaginary, and to conſiſt in Title only.

"If our Calamities were leſs grievous we ſhould fear, Sire, to declare to your Majeſty ſuch dreadful Preſages, and engage your Royal Attention to Attempts which ſtrike at the very Being of Monarchy: But in Duty we owe all to the Welfare of the State, to the Preſervation of your Crown, to the ſolemn Oath we have taken to you, and to the Confidence with which we have been always honoured, not only by the Kings your Predeceſſors, but even by your preſent Majeſty. 'You know and bewail with us, the Miſeries of your Kingdom, and the Dangers to which it is expoſed, aſſiſt us, therefore, in our Endeavours to ſave it!' This is the ſole Object, Sire, of our Attention, 'tis on this Principle our Indefatigable Pains are founded which have ſo long ſupported your Parliament, which no other Intereſt could have done with that immoveable Firmneſs, with which they oppoſe the Deſigns of many among the Clergy, and their Perſeverance in ſacrificing their Quiet and Watchfulneſs to the Good of the Kingdom: 'Tis, in a Word, that Spirit which brings your Parliament to the Foot of your Throne, to repreſent to your Majeſty, that the Preſervation of a State depends altogether upon the maintaining of the fundamental Laws of the Monarchy.

"A Work wrote and publiſhed by Order of your auguſt Great Grandfather, ſays, 'That the fundamental Law of the State forms an eternal and reciprocal Tye between the Prince and his Deſcendents on the one Part, and his Subjects and their Deſcendents on the other, as a Kind of Contract, whereby the Sovereign governs, and the People obey; a ſolemn Engagement, by which they are mutually bound to help and ſupport each other."

"Such, Sire, has been the Language of your Parliament on all Occaſions: 'The Kingdom is the King's, ſaid he, and the King is for the Kingdom; you are bound to maintain the Rights of your Crown, thoſe of your Own, and thoſe of your People; thoſe belonging to you as Head, thoſe of your Subjects as Members, the Subjects owe to their Prince Duty and Obedience, he owes them Protection and Preſervation; the People cannot by any Means ſhake off their Obedience to the King, nor he, in reciprocal Manner, forſake and abandon them; in as much as they owe him Fidelity and Support, he muſt in Return do them Juſtice."

Hanover, June 1. The Drought which has for ſome Time deſolated our Fields, fills us with Apprehenſions for our Corn, and other Fruits of the Earth, whoſe Beauty lately delighted our Eyes. A plentiful Rain, however, but of ſhort Continuance, and which only ſprinkled, as it were the Surface of the Earth, has in ſome Meaſure diſpell'd our Uneaſineſs, and reviv'd our Hopes.

Genoa, June 1. By the laſt Diſpatches from Barcelona, we are informed, that his Catholic Majeſty, being reſolved to put a Stop to the manifold Robberies of the Barbary Corſairs, has ſent Orders to his ſeveral Sea Ports, for the putting to Sea of as many Men of War as may be requiſite to form a Squadron of Ships, in order to deſtroy and deter thoſe Infidels.

Hamburgh, June 1. We learn from Hanover, that the Regency are buſied in taking effectual Meaſures to prevent the People of that Country from being ſeduced to engage themſelves for South Carolina. They even ſent a Commiſſary to Altena, to ſtop two Veſſels with a Number of thoſe Perſons; but they were ſailed before he reached the Place.

Franckfort, June 3. The extraordinary Heats we have had for ſome Time have done great Damage to the Corn and other Fruits of the Earth; which for want of Rain languiſh, and ſeem blaſted. This Calamity has already raiſed the Price of Proviſions.

Algiers, June 3. The Plague broke out a few Days ago in the Dey's Palace, and has ſince ſpread among the reſt of the Inhabitants, many of whom are daily carried off by this dreadful Diſtemper. Three Xebecks ſailed upon a Cruize the 19th of laſt Month, and were followed Ten Days after by three more.

Hague, June 11. The Difference between the Court of London, and that of Berlin, occaſioned by the Prizes taken at Sea by the Engliſh from the Pruſſians during the late War, and relating to the Indemnification which the King of Pruſſia thought himſelf entitled to make his Subjects out of the Sileſia Loan, has remained on the ſame Footing: But we juſt learn, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has aſked the Mediation of France to terminate this Affair in an amicable Manner. It is farther ſaid, that he has alſo applied to the French Court for Aſſiſtance in keeping Poſſeſſion of Eaſt Friefland, his Right to which, he pretends, is founded on Equity.

Genoa, June 16. Letters brought by the Packet-Boat from Barcelona, adviſe, that four new Men of War were expected at that Port, in order to be fitted out for the Weſt Indies, to ſupport the Guarda Coſtas: They are alſo to carry Marines, to reinforce the Crews of thoſe Guard Ships.

Paris, June 18. An Ordonnance is iſſued prohibiting all Maſters of Ships to carry Arms or warlike Stores to the Corſicans.

Paris, June 23. Letters from Breſt adviſe, that they are making a freſh Armament of nine Men of War, which, it is given out, are deſigned for nothing but to exerciſe the Marine Guards for two Months upon the Coaſts.

Amſterdam, June 24. We hear that the Engliſh Miniſter at the Porte has received Orders to demand an explicit Anſwer concerning the Foundation of the many Reports which have been ſpread, with regard to the Motions of the Turks.

LONDON.

June 9. Our laſt Letters from Vienna intimate, that the ſending Malefactors to work in the Fortifications at Temeſwaer, has had a very good Effect, thoſe Miſcreants being infinitely more afraid of Labour than of Death, and many who have been ſent thither have, in a ſhort Time, been wonderfully reclaimed.

Extract of a Letter from Kilcock, County of Kildare in Ireland, June 12.

"We are here in the utmoſt Conſternation, by Means of the Mob of this Town, who having by public Proclamation invited the Mobs of the other adjacent Towns, are now increaſed to about 1600, under Pretence of levelling the Ditches made to incloſe Lands, which as they pretend, were formerly Common: They have deſtroyed and laid waſte ſome of the fineſt Parks both of Meadow and Corn, in this Country which have not been Common in the Memory of any Perſon now living. They pull down the Piers and Hedges, and and burn the Gates. They march with Colours flying, Drums, Trumpets, &c. Where this will end we cannot foreſee, but as they now go about to lay the whole Country under Contribution, and threaten Death to any Perſon who ſhall either reſiſt them, or give Information againſt them, we think ourſelves in much Danger in ſuch a wicked Rabble."

Extract of a Letter from Mancheſter, June 15.

'Laſt Friday Night, at Forty Minutes after 'Eleven, the greater Part of the Inhabitants of 'this Town were terribly alarmed with a Shock 'of an Earthquake, which laſted about the ſpace 'of a Minute, whereby Numbers were awakened 'by the ſhaking of their Beds. At that Inſtant I 'was ſitting on the Bedſide, undreſſing myſelf, and 'was almoſt thrown with my Face on the Ground, 'and my Watch was toſſed from off a Table 'whereon I had laid it. The Shock was pre-'ceeded, or rather accompanied, by a ruſhing 'Noiſe like Wind.

'It was felt in a great many Villages adjacent 'to this Town; at Oldham and Ratcliff the tre-'mulous Motion of the Earth was more ſenſibly 'perceived; their Beds were lifted up by it, and 'the Houſes violently agitated. The Shock ac-'cording to ſome Letters in Town, was felt at the 'ſame Time in Cheſhire, at the Diſtance of four-'teen Miles from hence.'

June 27. We hear, Governor Hopſon, is ſhortly expected over from Nova Scotia, on account of his ill State of Health, and that another Governor will be appointed in his Room.

June 28. They write from Paris, that the Number of Perſons confined in the Baſtile, for talking too freely of the preſent Affairs, amounts to thirteen hundred.

July 3. It is reported, but on what Foundation we cannot preſume to ſay, that the Turks have naturalized and incorporated the Chriſtians among them; and that a very conſiderable Number of Chriſtians are preparing to embark for that Kingdom, in order to enjoy the Benefits thereof. Note, the Chriſtians there are excluded all Rights to Preſentations of Livings, &c.

July 7. Letters from Hamburgh adviſe, that the Czarina, during her late Illneſs, made a Vow to put no more Criminals to Death, but to puniſh them corporally, or baniſh them.

July 10. We learn from Cadiz, that they are about to embark 2000 Land Troops, which are to enforce the Garriſons in America, where, on account of the illicit Trade, there is a ſort of open War between certain Nations. The Court perſiſts in its Intention of employing a naval Force to block up the Port of Algiers. It is ſaid that a new and very important Negociation is on the Carpet with their Imperial Majeſties.

We are aſſur'd that Colonel Lawrence is appointed Governor of Nova-Scotia, in the Room of Colonel Hopſon, who has reſign'd.

July 23. We hear that Lord Baltimore will ſpeedily be created a Baron of Great Britain, by the Name, Stile and Title of Frederick, Lord Baron of Hanway, in the County of Middleſex.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, July 28.

From Carthagena, we hear, That a Veſſel ſent by the Governor of the Caraccas, on board of which was a Packet containing Matters of Conſequence, to his moſt Catholic Majeſty, in her Way touched at Coracoa, were ſhe was ſeized, as alſo the Packet.

We alſo hear, That Don Pedro Laſardo, Commodore of the Spaniſh Squadron at Carthagena, was ordered to ſail with all poſſible Expedition for Coracoa, to demand the Packet; and in Caſe it ſhould be broke open, and not delivered in the ſame Manner as it was incloſed, or refuſed to be delivered at all, Don Pedro Laſardo has Orders to cruize with his Squadron off Coracoa, and there take, ſink or deſtroy all Veſſels belonging to that Place.

CHARLES-TOWN, Auguſt 20.

The Catawba's have been very little annoyed by any Enemy ſince they made Peace with the Five Nations; but lately the French Indians, called Caughnawagee's, have killed and carried off 14 or 15 of them: The Catawba's we doubt not will ſoon repay them in their own Coin, and with Intereſt; a Week ago they brought five of their Enemy's Scalps to Town, and we hear of another Engagement ſince, in which ſix Catawba Men and two Boys, fell upon twenty of the Enemy, and killed eighteen upon the Spot, with the Loſs of but one Man.

BOSTON, September 10.

Laſt Monday one of our Fiſhing Veſſels brought in here the Crew of a French Schooner, conſiſting of nine Men with Part of her Cargo, Sails, &c. which they diſcover'd to be in Diſtreſs about a Fortnight ago, being caſt aſhore and ſtranded ſome Leagues to the Eaſtward of Cape Sables; ſhe belong'd to Louiſburg, and was bound thither from Martineco.

ANNAPOLIS.

Tueſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here.

The LORD PROPRIETARY's SPEECH

[Tranſmitted, and by his Excellency's Direction, read by the Clerk of the Council]

To both Houſes of Aſſembly of the Province of Maryland, in America. Dated at London, the 17th Day of March, in the Second Year of his Lordſhip's Dominion over the ſaid Province, and in the Year of our Lord, 1753.

F. Baltimore.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly,

THE Care of this Province now deſcending to me, as Lord and Proprietary thereof, I think it will not be leſs agreeable to you, than ſatisfactory to myſelf, to aſſure you, that I ſhall always follow the good Examples of thoſe my Anceſtors, who firſt enterprized, eſtabliſhed, promoted and improved the Province of Maryland: Their great and generous Motives, their conſtant Regard and Attention to your Intereſt and Proſperity, their Love and Diligence, and the Effects of it in the Increaſe of your Numbers, and the Extent of your Commerce, will ever animate and influence me to diſcharge my Duty to you, and my own Deſcendents, in ſuch Manner, that the Poſterity of both may not think leſs favourably of me, than of my Anceſtors. And I truſt it will be eſteemed one Proof of my Care, that I have, with his Majeſty's moſt gracious Approbation, named and conſtituted Mr. HORATIO SHARPE, to be my Lieutenant-General and Governor in Chief of the Province of Maryland; a Gentleman whoſe Loyalty and Attachment to our happy Eſtabliſhment, is certain, and from whoſe Integrity, Honour and Abilities, I have great Reaſon to expect all that the Importance of ſo great a Truſt, which I have repoſed in him, for the public Good and general Benefit of this Province, may require.

Gentlemen of both Houſes,

With all Duty and Allegiance to my Sovereign, I ſhall always moſt ſincerely deſire to co-operate and join with you, in preſerving the Government, both in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed: And ſhall embrace every Occaſion, wherein I may teſtify, the real Love and Eſteem I have for you, which I hope will be ſufficiently ſhewn by the Care I ſhall always take of the Laws, Liberties and Properties of my good Tenants of the Province of Maryland. I cannot entertain the leaſt Doubt that I ſhall ever fail of all ſuitable Returns from you, whoſe Juſtice and Regard for me, will, I am perſuaded, induce you to do all in your Power in ſupport of my juſt Rights and Properties, as I ſhall always, on my Part, do in ſupport of yours.

The SPEECH of his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland, to both Houſes of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, on Tueſday the 2d Day of October, 1753.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly,

I HAVE choſen this Opportunity of meeting you upon the laſt Prorogation, from an Opinion, that your Attendance here may be more ſuitable to your private Affairs at this, than at any other Seaſon.

I cannot but take Occaſion, to congratulate you on the Lord Proprietary being arrived at an Age to take you under his more immediate Protection, and convince you, by his tender Care, that the affectionate Profeſſions you have now heard from him, are the real Dictates of his generous Heart: And I muſt with Pleaſure, acknowlege myſelf perſuaded, from the ſhort Acquaintance I have had amongſt you, that you will not ſhew leſs Earneſtneſs to maintain that Harmony, and mutual Good-Will, on which alone the real Happineſs and Proſperity of the Province can ſubſiſt.

Nothing can contribute ſo much to my own Happineſs, as to ſee this Province flouriſh under my Adminiſtration; but as Mens different Conceptions, frequently, in Life, prevent their concurring in the Means to obtain the End they equally have in View, I will promiſe the leſs, and endeavour the more, that every Step I take, may conduce to the general Welfare.

As ſoon as his Lordſhip's Commiſſion made Maryland an Object of my Attention, and his Commands pointed me out a Way of ſhewing my Zeal in it's Service, by procuring a Replacement of the Arms ſupplied from the Provincial Armory, for the Canada Expedition, I loſt no Time in making Application, and with ſuch Succeſs, that their Arrival may be expected ſoon after the Orders already iſſued for that Purpoſe, can be complied with.

Gentlemen,

Although the Principle of Self Preſervation, and that univerſal Deſire to increaſe the Riches of one's Country, ſeem to make every Recommendation on thoſe Points unneceſſary to it's Repreſentatives, yet as ſeveral Omiſſions may happen through Multiplicity of Buſineſs, or other Accidents, I ſhall not be wanting on my Part, in reminding you, from Time to Time, of what may occur to my Thoughts, relative to thoſe important Subjects, ſo worthy of your Regard.

The Honourable Houſe of Aſſembly, made Choice of Mr. George Johnſon, to be Serjeant, and Mr. Richard Goldſmith, to be Door keeper, in the room of Mr. Thomas King, and Mr. Thomas Sparrow, Deceaſed ſince laſt Seſſion.

[We ſhall next Week, go on with a brief Account, of each Day's Proceeding in Aſſembly, as we begun laſt Year.]

Saturday laſt, being the 29th of September, Michael Macnemara, Eſqr was choſen Mayor of this City, for the Year enſuing: And Benjamin Tasker, junior, Eſq; was choſen Alderman, in the room of Robert Gordon, Eſq; Deceaſed.

Monday next is appointed for the Election of a Repreſentative for this City, in the General Aſſembly now ſitting, in the room of Capt. Gordon, Deceaſed.

Tueſday the Sixteenth Inſtant is appointed for the Election of a Repreſentative for this County, in the room of Mr. Thomas Worthington, Deceaſed.

On Tueſday laſt arrived in Weſt River, from London, the Grove, Capt. Wilſon, belonging to Mr. Samuel Galloway, Merchant, with a Parcel of very healthy Indented Tradeſmen and Huſbandmen. Capt. Wilſon brings Word of the ſafe Arrival in London, of the Captains Spencer and Coolidge from Patuxent.

Yeſterday died of the Dropſy, aged about 59 Years, Capt JOSEPH COWMAN, a Gentleman remarkable for his friendly Hoſpitality, and many other good Qualities; and his Remains will be Interr'd on Saturday next, at the Weſt River Meeting Houſe.
